Faith reacts differently when expectations fail.

Faith Remembers: (Psalm 90:1-4)

- A. Faith remembers God's _____.
- Thinking is a necessary element of living for Jesus in a fallen world.
 - Moses remembers that his eternal home is in the Almighty God.
 - The Almighty God remains steady from everlasting to everlasting.
 - The response of faith when expectations fail starts by remembering the Almighty God.
 - Your reference point will make a drastic difference in how you live.

"Finding meaning in our life now in the face of death then depends on placing the starting point of our understanding outside ourselves." — Patrick Miller

- B. Faith remembers your _____. (Psalm 90:5-12)
- Moses considers painful but necessary truths.
 - The truth should lead you to do some thinking.
 - Remember your frailty so that when expectations fail, you respond with a heart of wisdom.

Faith Advances:

- You live with a heart of wisdom by being prayerful and satisfied. (Psalm 90:13-14)
- You live with a heart of wisdom by being hopeful and helpful. (Psalm 90:13-14)

Key Takeaways:

- Faith remembers God's eternal greatness and our human frailty.
- Faith advances by living prayerfully, finding satisfaction in God, remaining hopeful, and serving faithfully.
- A heart of wisdom is developed by remembering God's perspective and trusting Him when expectations fail.
